

I think that too few corporations control the airways. I am agitated that all the conservative talk stations in the area.